

FESTIVAL INFO No. 13 (1.10.2014)
Follow-up Comments from Guests of the Second Festival Weekend

Rehad & Zivia Desai (South Africa, Director and Co-Producer of MINERS SHOT DOWN, honoured with the Audience Award for Best Documentary Film):

“We would like to thank the festival from the bottom of our hearts for all the good energy we have received. It is inspiring to know and feel the support of the German audience for both our film and the wider campaign for justice this event has sparked. We urge you to continue with your sterling work.”

Joseph Akwasi (Ghana, Director of four short films shown at the festival):

“Greetings from warm and sunny Ghana!

Thank you once again for this unique platform to show my films, network and have a great time doing that. “

Ludo de Witte (Belgium, invited to the background discussion on the murder of Burundi's first Prime Minister RWAGASORE)

“Thank you for the invitation and the perfect organisation, it was a pleasure to be back in Cologne“

Antje Klesse (giz Cairo / Project ANA HUNNA – Women in the Working World of North Africa):

“Congratulations on your festival. I found it to be wonderful all around and I'm crossing fingers for you and the future of the festival.”

Judy Kibinge (Kenya, Director of the feature film SOMETHING NECESSARY)

“It was great to be there in this warm, intimate festival surrounded by such kind and interesting people!“

Filipe Henriques (Guinea-Bissau, Director of the feature film O ESPINHO DA ROSA):

“Thank you so much for everything. It was a wonderful festival.”

Gerhardt Haag (Director of Theater im Bauturm and Initiator of the africologneFESTIVAL):

“After your wonderful, incredibly successful and great festival: Rest well and relax!!!“
